

Name: _____

Date: _____

Test your Knowledge - Pressure Injury

Across

- 2. Pressure ____ are these areas where bone can cause force on the skin and squeezes them against an outside force
- 8. Keeping ____ of the bed helps prevents pressure ulcers
- 9. Skin ____ should be done every time the patient has a bath
- 11. ____ and re positioning a patient is important
- 12. A patient being unable to ____ themselves puts him or her at risk
- 13. ____ must be evaluated and updated often when a patient has a pressure ulcer

17. A pressure ____ is any lesion cause by constant pressure that harms the tissue underneath the skin

18. Pressure ulcers can be very painful for a ____

Down

- 1. Food ____ records are important for the dietitian and nurse to know when a patient is not eating
- 3. If a patient has a pressure ulcer before , he 'she is more a ____ of getting another one
- 4. ____ puts a patient at risk
- 5. It is important to protect the skin from ____

6. ____ is the force when the skin sticks to a surface and the body slides

7. Encouraging a patient to eat and drink at _____ can help prevent weight loss

10. As a care ____ you must report to the nurse when your patient has a change in their skin

14. The elderly may be at a greater risk due to changes in their skin related to ____

15. Preventing weight ____ is important

16. Getting enough ____ and protein is very important