

Thank you Mr. Falker

Across

- 5. A mean, overbearing person who habitually badgers, teases and intimidates smaller or weaker people.
- 6. humming, noisy, busy, filled with excitement, whispering about something new and exciting
- 8. stylish, sophisticated, fancy, fashionable, classy, beautiful
- 9. galloped, leaped, jumped, raced

- 11. smart, genius, intelligent, clever, impressive, skillful
- 12. To irritate, make fun, or provoke with persistent petty distractions or other annoyance, often in sport.

Down

- 1. A state of knowing information, facts, or principles gained by sight, study or experience.

- 2. stuttered, tripped (messed up the words), made mistakes, looked clumsy, hesitated
- 3. flaws, weakness, failure
- 4. cleverness, slyness, craftiness
- 7. Worth remembering; notable; easily remembered.
- 10. wished for, desired, wanted, ache for, yearn for