

The 7 Characteristics of Life.

Across

8. what is the production of making babies

9. what is this an example of- internal regulation of our body to maintain a stable environment

11. the change over time of living organisms

Down

1. to maintain their internal order, energy is needed by organisms. Energy is utilized in chemical reactions.

2. energy is utilized in

3. which is the first characteristic of life

4. essential for the survival of a species

5. the DNA molecule is

6. energy use and metabolism is which of the seven characteristics

7. What are all living things made up of

10. energy is needed be