

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Amendments

Across

7. Has to do with the explicit mentioning of the right to trial by jury in certain civil cases, according to common law

8. Has to do with fixing the dates of term commencements for Congress and the President, which is also known as the lame duck amendment.

9. Has to do with the revision of presidential election, but just the procedures that are in place

10. It has to do with the federal government not being able to force citizens to quarter soldiers.

11. The freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and freedom of petition

Down

1. Has to do with the rules of indictment by a grand jury, eminent domain, and prohibits self-incrimination as well as double jeopardy

2. the right to keep and bear arms in order to maintain a well regulated militia

3. These are civil rights that are guaranteed by the government whether that be by the federal government or the state government.

4. Has to do with establishing women's suffrage, and making it illegal to not allow someone to vote solely because of gender

5. Has to do with immunity of states from suits from out-of-state citizens and foreigners no living within the state borders. This will lay the foundation for sovereign immunity

6. Has to do with the rights of an accused person. They are guaranteed the right to a fair and speedy public trial by jury