

Name: _____

The Behavioural/Social Learning Approach Crossword

Across

6. Someone with an _____ locus of control believe that the environment and luck determine their outcomes

7. _____ and _____ value is what determines the likelihood that a given behaviour will occur in a particular situation

8. The father of Behaviourism

9. Theory that behaviour is able to explained through the analysis of conditioned/learned behaviour or associating stimuli

10. Bandura's _____ model breaks down observational learning and performance and how they consist of 4 interrelated processes

12. Learning process through which the strength of a behaviour is modified by reinforcement or punishment.

Down

1. The notion that we learn by observing, reading or just hearing about other people's behaviour.

2. Behaviour then determines the kind of environment we find ourselves in, which can then influence behaviour

3. The belief that our behaviour is determined by a triadic system which includes three self-regulatory feedback loops; internal factors, external factors and behaviour

4. Learning a new behaviour via the process of association

5. Someone with an _____ locus of control believe that they are responsible for their own success

11. Creator of operant conditioning