

The Business Side of Healthcare!

Across

2. Practice of assigning numerical or alphanumerical terms to identify a procedure or diagnosis
 6. Payment required for insurance coverage
 7. Government health benefits for low income or medically needy individuals
 8. Summary of information and discussion that occurred during a meeting
 10. Practice of ensuring all laws are followed

13. Financially responsible individual

14. Keeping secret all information used in a health care organization

15. Provides financial assistance for healthcare coverage to persons 65 years of age and over, to persons who are disabled, and to those with end stage renal disease

Down

1. A set amount of money that must be paid by insured for each visit

3. Values and guidelines governing decisions in medical practice

4. A genuine caring and concern for others

5. Federal regulation defining use and disclosure of health information

9. To give approval

11. Computerized medical record system used in healthcare

12. Knowingly billing an insurance company or individual for something that did not occur