

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Call of the Wild

Across

- 1. filled to excess
- 6. made friendly; pacified
- 9. body of water off the west coast of B.C. - between WA and Alaska
- 21. hinted; implied
- 24. children
- 25. ill-tempered; gloomy
- 26. wild, untamed
- 27. former French coin; comparable to one cent
- 29. choked; strangled
- 30. lessened
- 34. small horses used by cowboys
- 37. area south of San Francisco, CA
- 38. pass through the coastal mountains north of Dyea; border between Alaska and B.C.
- 39. arrogantly

- 40. showing readiness to fight or quarrel

Down

- 2. vast region in northern Canada west of Hudson Bay
- 3. completely satisfies
- 4. living near the seacoast; where waterways are affected by the tide
- 5. greatly desired
- 7. highest point; peak
- 8. dried up; shriveled
- 10. Gold was discovered in 1896; in the Yukon Territory on NW Canada
- 11. uttered to himself
- 12. transformed
- 13. existing from the beginning; primitive
- 14. rabies
- 15. rhythmic tones; rise and fall of the voice
- 16. uncustomary; unusual

- 17. enclosed fields around a stable where horses are exercised
- 18. pole at the back of the sled
- 19. dangerous rapids in Yukon River; north of Carmacks
- 20. persuading by means of flattery; coaxing
- 22. town 80 miles north of Juneau, Alaska
- 23. an estate; especially one belonging to a lord
- 28. railroad station at which trains stop only when flagged
- 31. wintry
- 32. shared in by imagined participation in another's experience
- 33. deep trouble or misery; disaster
- 35. straps connecting the dog's harness to the sled
- 36. animal fat