

The Call of the Wild

Across

- 4. The name of a tribe of Indians
- 6. Straps that attach sled dogs to other sled dogs and the sled
- 10. A unit of measurement equal to 5,280 feet, or 1,760 yards
- 11. A character trait that some of the sled dogs possess, to be ferocious
- 13. A weapon that is used to beat dogs

- 14. Someone that causes pain to another individual or group
- 15. The continuance in a course of action in spite of difficulty or opposition

Down

- 1. To be without life
- 2. The area where Buck was from
- 3. What Buck changes into throughout the novel
- 5. A impulse you are born with that you do without thinking

- 7. A territory of North Western Canada

- 8. To move about vigorously
- 9. A type of gun with a chamber that holds bullets and revolves
- 12. The metal parts of a sled that help the sled be pulled, and they sometimes need to be broken out

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-----------|------------|-----------|--------------------|
| Yukon | Traces | Revolver | Persistence |
| Churn | Yeehat | Club | Santa Clara Valley |
| Instincts | Primitive | Mile | Runners |
| Lifeless | Savageness | Tormentor | |