

The Canterbury Tales Prologue & The Wife of Bath

Across

- 2. What did the old woman want as a reward for telling the knight the answer?
- 5. The problem the knight encountered was that he got _____ answers from everyone.
- 7. What was the answer to what women want most?
- 9. Who allowed the knight to have a year to figure out his answer?

Word Bank

- | | | | | | |
|------------|-----------|----------|--------|--------|---------|
| pilgrimage | different | marriage | queen | knight | five |
| ugly | frame | power | middle | women | Chaucer |

- 11. What type of tale is the Canterbury Tales? A _____ tale

- 12. Which social class was being newly formed at the time the Canterbury Tales were written?

Down

- 1. The people in the Canterbury Tales are headed on a _____
- 3. The wife of bath was married _____ times

- 4. Who committed the crime?

- 6. The criminal had to figure out what _____ desire most.

- 8. Who wrote the Canterbury Tales?

- 10. Why did the knight not want to marry the old woman? She was old and _____.