

The Cay

Across

- 2. a feeling of confusion through lack of understanding 4. to ask or nag about something in an annoying way
10. to force to leave a country or place by official decree
14. guilty of betrayal or deception
15. a thin oil used as fuel for heating or cooking
16. heavy material to improve stability on a ship or balloon
17. to confer dignity or honor on something
18. to thrash about

- 19. a sharp blow or strike with a whip or rope used as a punishment
21. a narrow passageway of boards laid on the ground
22. a rebellion against proper authorities
24. a severe beating
25. something intended regarded as a sign of what is to come
26. a lobster
27. a German submarine used in the World Wars
28. extremely unpleasant or upsetting

Down

- 1. collection of rain over a natural drainage area

- 3. to be split into splinters
5. a flat bottomed boat or hollow metal cylinder used for support of bridged and floating objects
6. rough or grating in sound
7. self propelled underwater missile
8. to spill or splash clumsily
9. limited in quantity, fullness, or extent
11. vigorously incisive or effective
12. to walk on, over, or along
13. in a serious or solemn manner
20. a small axe with a short handle
23. a disk of stone used for grinding, sharpening, or polishing metal objects