

The Characteristics/Organization of Life

Across

- 3. The last level of the organization of life.
- 5. Heredity material that tells cells how to do their jobs and how to make new cells
- 8. when two or more tissues work together to perform a specific job in the body they make these.

- 9. Organisms that can't make their own energy
- 10. Total of all chemical activity it takes to live
- 12. The first level of the organization of life.
- 13. Organisms that make their own energy

Down

- 1. A change in an organism's environment that affects its activity

- 2. Organs that work together to perform jobs in the jobs make this
- 4. An organism made of more than one cell
- 6. An organism made of only one cell
- 7. A reaction to a stimulus
- 11. Multiple cells working together to perform a job in the body make this.