

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Classical Period

Across

1. the spread of ideas and products
6. a domineering leader of a Greek city-state that had seized power from a legitimate leader
7. rule by a small group, generally of wealthy men
10. commoner social class of Roman society
11. large agriculture estates owned by wealthy Roman citizens

Down

2. idea that the right to rule was granted to the Chinese Emperor from the gods
3. upper class of Roman society
4. administrative offices of a government staffed with non-elected workers
5. Respect for ones elders, parents and ancestors; a feature of Confucianism
8. a strict social stratification system that characterized Hindu society in South Asia
9. refers to the rulers who have absolute power