

The Color of Water

Across

1. A polish jew crippled by polio as a child
 6. Ruth's grandmother on her mother's side
 10. Ruth's older brother who ran away to Chicago at fifteen
 12. In NYC where Ruth raised her children
 13. Ruth's first lover
 14. Traveling orthodox rabbi
 18. African American Muslim and human rights activist

19. describes his personal confusion about race and identity

20. Born rachel dwajra zylska

Down

2. The obese owner of a leather goods factory in NYC
 3. Ruth had to get one of these, because she didnt want to have her first child yet
 4. A drunk who offered James worldly advice
 5. Self defense african american revolutionary party
 7. The youngest of mameh's sisters

8. state where ruth moved and fell in love with a black baptist minister named andrew

9. Ruth's only friend during her childhood in suffolk

11. ruth's birthplace

15. major african american residential, cultural and business center

16. fifty year old manager of a manicure shop and sometimes a pimp

17. Ruth's grandfather on her mother's side