

The Components of Nursing

Across

2. Moral principals that govern ones behavior.
6. The solving of complexed problems through analysis and evaluation.
7. To display kindness and concern for others.
8. A person who works on behalf of patients to maintain quality of care and to protect patient rights
11. Showing no prejudice for or against someone.

12. A pioneer in the field of nursing who is considered to be the founder of modern nursing

13. Empathy shown towards a patients pain, suffering and difficulties.

Down

1. Treatment that takes into consideration the patient as a whole

3. Having a strong work ethic, as well as, respecting others and functioning with integrity.

4. The ability to perform many jobs at once while avoiding errors

5. A person who introduces new methods, idea and solutions.

9. To always be open to increasing ones knowledge

10. To be well balanced and mentally sound.