

The Cosmological Argument

Across

2. indefinite sequence of causes or beings
 3. a failure in reasoning that makes an argument invalid
 7. the fallacy of inferring that something is true of the whole
 9. an elementary principle assumed to be one of the building blocks of matter

10. a fact that has no explanation
 12. a form of necessity that derives from the nature or essence of things

Down

1. the doctrine of everything that must have a reason/cause
 4. usually refers to this space-time universe

5. Attributed by William of Ockham
 6. beings or things are dependant for their existence on other beings or things
 8. bridges the gap between God and humans
 11. _____ 3 Way's