

Name: _____

The Crucible 2

Across

- Elizabeth admits this emotional coldness ruined their relationship
- This dramatist can mill wheat; a noun agent
- evil modern witch-hunting senator in C20
- to free from blame (but too late for protagonists, who hang)
- the small doll that got Elizabeth accused by Abigail
- the sanctimonious homonym for the city of the Seine
- the genre of book that got Martha hanged
- Proctor's terrible sin; one of the Ten Commandments

- Proctor states that his wife's coldness would freeze this.
- Rebecca's number of grand-children
- the strict religious sect of Salem
- another name for a husband's missus in the play
- two-faced characteristic in Salem; Proctor detests this in himself too

Down

- his holy evolution from too many heavy books to compassion
- This antagonist will probably also be greedy for Putt-Putt land.
- that part of the house in the opening scene

- Proctor's personal unforgiving emotion
- adjective for Salemites who appear holy
- '...', '...', quite contrary, how does your garden grow? She serves the Proctors
- to where Abigail resolved herself as a loose woman
- a synonym for one who tells lies
- that personal ennobling characteristic Proctor wants for his son
- the colour of the bird the bad girls saw in the courthouse
- Her first name married to our playwright
- one of two in a coma