

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

The Devil and His Boy - Crossword Puzzle (Created by Josh Kim)

Across

2. an untidy/disordered appearance of a person (hair, clothes)
3. a wooden plate or platter for food
6. in a miserable/unhappy state
8. police officers of the lowest rank
12. unfocused from sleep/tiredness
13. a small pier at which boats can dock (made of stones or wood)
15. slow and relaxed, weak or faint from illness or fatigue
16. to burn a mark on a criminal or slave using a branding iron
17. pointless

19. anger/annoyance provoked by what is perceived as unfair treatment

21. the opposite
23. having gone in different directions
24. not friendly; cool and distant
25. bent one's knee

Down

1. sad and depressed
4. in a very poor condition as a result of disuse and neglect
5. an offense or offender punishable as treason (crime of betraying one's country)

7. to express disapproval or disappointment in someone

9. intentionally harmful
10. someone new to a group/team - not yet fully trained; to get someone to work in a company or join an organization
11. when a character in a play speaks their thoughts aloud by themselves
14. a violent person, especially one involved in crime
18. an attempt to achieve a goal
20. a hard, fatty substance made from animal fat, used in making candles and soap
22. determined to do something