

Name: _____ Date: _____

The Electoral College

1. Most people believe they are voting directly for _____
A. Electoral College
2. Each state's _____ chose the president
B. Representatives in Congress.
3. In the beginning, two candidates were voted on and the top two would win
C. majority
4. The _____ allows a candidate to only run for president or vice president
D. 12th Amendment
5. A nominee needs a _____ of the electoral votes to win the presidency.
E. the President
6. The race is over as soon as one of the nominees get more than _____ of the total electoral votes.
F. electors
7. The president is not officially elected until the members of the _____ cast their state's votes in December.
G. 538
8. Today there are _____ electoral votes.
H. half or 270
9. The Constitution allows each state to have as many electoral votes as it has _____.
I. 3
10. No state has fewer than _____ electoral votes.
J. President and Vice Presiden