

The Executive Branch

Across

6. This executive department supervises trade and promotes US tourism
10. This declared that the President must notify Congress of their decision to mobilize troops immediately and troops can only stay for 60 days unless approved by the Senate
11. The President's close group of political advisors and the heads of executive departments
12. How long is the Presidential term of office?
13. To grant forgiveness of a crime or offense to one person
15. Which amendment put forth the long line of Presidential succession?

18. Non-profit businesses run by the government to provide goods and services to the public

19. The President can campaign for fellow political party members because they play this role of the executive branch

20. This is the speech the President gives to Congress to lay out their goals and discuss the current situation in America.

Down

1. How long do you need to be a US citizen to run for governor of NC
2. The President has the power to veto bills because they play this role of the executive branch
3. Delay punishment until a higher court can hear the case

4. An agreement between the President and another country's leader

5. All of the agencies and departments that assist the President in carrying out the laws

7. The President can issue one of these, which give them the power of the law.

8. The president can make treaties and appoint ambassadors because they play this role of the executive branch

9. To punish a nation through trade barriers

14. What is the minimum age requirement for a US President?

16. A plan for dealing with other nations

17. A punishment to stop trading with a target nation