

The Executive Branch

Across

3. Who casts the official vote for the President?
 8. Which article of the Constitution establishes the executive branch?
 10. During George Washington's presidential term he didn't specifically have a cabinet, but he did have advisors. One of his advisors was Thomas Jefferson, who was Washington's Secretary of _____.
 11. For presidential candidate, what serves as a pep rally for them to announce their Keynote Address?

Down

1. It is possible to win the _____ but still lose the presidential election.

2. What is made up of all the agencies, departments, and bureaus of the federal government?
 4. Which executive office holder is also the President of the Senate?
 5. The amount of years each President and Vice President serve in a term.
 6. The Head of State, the Commander-in-Chief, the Chief Executive, or the Chief Diplomat, or also known as the _____ of the United States.
 7. Currently, how many positions are there in the Cabinet?
 9. Who's job is it to advise the President?