

The False Prince 27-54

Across

4. differ strikingly, compare in such a way as to emphasize differences

7. constant, does not become more mild, harsh or inflexible

11. regarded by society to be good, proper or correct

13. to take for granted or without proof

14. excessive pride in oneself or one's achievements

16. with deep sincerity, in a formal dignified manner

18. as far as one knows or can see

Down

1. about to happen; imminent

2. to persuade or move to some action, to push or force along

3. indicating or showing unbelief, skeptical

5. the practice of giving unfair, preferential treatment to one person or group at the expense of another

6. the available body of facts or information indicating whether a belief or proposition is true or valid

8. lacking in vitality, force or conviction, uninspiring

9. having a good reputation, good character

10. to rise to a higher position or rank

12. playful trick or prank

15. opposite in nature, direction or meaning

17. the state of being a slave or subject to someone more powerful