

The Four Humours

Across

- 5. The humour that was seen when someone has vomited
- 7. The humour that did not form part of the surplus things, but its significance was felt
- 9. Which season is phlegm associated with?
- 10. A type of humour that is related to illnesses like pneumonia and pleurisy

Down

- 1. State the primary element of yellow bile

- 2. The humour that was seen in the blood as heavy residue that is why is it closely related to cholera, dysentery and intestinal disorders
- 3. The person that first introduced the theory of humours
- 4. One of the four sources that came before Hippocrates is the principle of the _____ philosophy that is concerned with harmony, balance and tetrads
- 6. it is believed, in Greek medicine, that when food is digested, it becomes one with the blood, bones and?
- 8. The quality/characteristic that yellow and black bile have in common