

The Hate U Give

Across

- 2. Comfort or consolation in a time of distress or sadness
6. Dryness of the mouth
7. Relatively small group of people, especially one commonly discriminated against
10. Keep someone in subservience or hardship, especially by the unjust exercise of authority
11. a public official who acts as a prosecutor for the state or Federal government in a particular district

12. The ability to use different parts of the body together smoothly and efficiently

14. Famous or well-known, typically for some bad quality or deed

15. An impoverished, neglected, or otherwise disadvantaged residential area of a city, usually troubled by a disproportionately large amount of crime

Down

1. Use of a situation or person in an unfair or selfish way

3. Of, for or used in a religious or ceremonial procession

4. Engaged in or promoting political revolution

5. A person belonging to a gang who is usually not able to stand up on his own. Has to rely on others for support

8. To irritate or annoy

9. Feeling or characterized by great anger

13. Formally accuse of or charge with a serious crime