

The Humanist Approach Chapter 3 Crossword

Across

3. What influenced writers to focus on expressing their thoughts and emotions?
 5. Renaissance thinkers emphasized ideas and values such as individual achievement and the importance of _____ and the arts.
 7. One of the ancient writers who studied from the Christian perspective.
 8. Civic humanists believed that being a responsible citizen meant _____ yourself about history and political issues and working to improve society.
 12. What book was rediscovered during the Renaissance?
 15. The classical texts that were admired and studied by Renaissance scholars were written before the beginning of _____.
 16. Renaissance artists began to interpret the art in a _____ way.

19. Many humanists were _____ who ran schools.
 20. The Renaissance saw a growing _____ in portraits and landscapes.
 22. The language commonly spoken by the people that live in that region.
 23. Many rulers and wealthy people hired humanists to be what for their children?
 24. The classical concept that was the most important to Renaissance thinkers and artists was the belief in the _____ and potential of the individual.

Down

1. It is _____ for a person to have an open, curious, and questioning mind.
 2. The role of the artist changed _____ during the Renaissance.
 4. Religion continued to play an important part in people's lives, just as it had during the _____.

6. _____ in the Middle Ages were seen as craftspeople rather than artists.
 9. Renaissance humanists were interested in what classical authors had written about good _____.
 10. The Greek and Roman civilizations form what we call "_____ civilization".
 11. Humanist ideas spread mainly among the _____ people in society.
 13. Whose idea was that public service was the duty of everyone in society?
 14. What people found inspiration in the arts of ancient Greeks and Romans?
 17. Humanists influenced the Renaissance society the most from the emphasis they put on what?
 18. Who was the leading Italian poet of his time?
 21. People can achieve great things through this thing.