

The Industrial Revolution

Across

- 2. the process of economic and social change in which an increasing number of the population of a country live in urban areas
- 3. An area that is characterised by farmlands, vegetation and open spaces
- 7. effects which can be identified within a short period of time after the event
- 8. A farming invention by Jethro Tull

- 9. The Land _____ Act led to the privatisation of farmlands
- 11. A form of power created by coal and water
- 12. The Spinning _____ improved the process of producing cloth
- 13. A person whose job is to entertain factory workers by reading news articles and stories

Down

- 1. the process in which a country's economy moves from relying on agriculture to the manufacture of goods and services

- 4. A person whose job is to wake up another person at a requested time, by tapping at their window
- 5. Infectious and deadly bacterial disease that spread in urban slums
- 6. _____ production is the the process of creating large numbers of similar products efficiently
- 10. A man-made waterway that is used by small boats to transport goods