

The Lady or the Tiger

Across

5. Showy. How the Kings thoughts and ideas were.

7. All people put on trial takes one of these.

9. The side that the door of the princess's lover opens

11. The man who sits in the middle of the amphitheater and etches the people he put on trial die or live. His nature I'd bland and genial.

12. The king had a lot of this

Down

1. Affection for another person. The princess feels this through the the story

2. Where trials are tested and where people's fates are determined

3. The king's personality

4. A part or half.

Barbarism was this _ to the princess.

6. To assume power with arrogance. A mannerism both the princess and King possessed.

8. If you were guilty, you'd open the door to a _ and suffer a terrible death

10. If you were innocent, you'd open the door to a _ and live a married life