

The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe Ch. 5-8

Across

1. to have friendly or intimate relations with a member or members of a hostile or alien group, such as occupying enemy troops or civilians in an occupied country.
 6. a white substance with a very strong smell that is taken from the camphor tree.
 9. the period of one monarch's rule.
 14. the power to control or direct someone or something.
 15. one who hates or wants to harm another.
 16. a piece of land and the buildings on it.

17. a rural deity in Roman mythology that had the upright stance and upper body of a man and the ears, horns, and lower body of a goat.

18. a decorative chain or strip of ribbons, flowers, leaves, or the like, suspended at the ends and hung in a curve.

Down

2. having a higher position, degree, or rank.
 3. honestly concerned or sincere.
 4. a police force that conducts undercover operations designed to discourage opposition to the government.

5. a small piece of thin cloth used to wipe the nose or face, or worn as decoration in a pocket.

7. to signal to come using a motion of the head or hands.

8. a post that supports a lamp, esp. a street lamp.

10. a prediction or warning of future events.

11. something that must be taken into account in making a decision.

12. any animal other than a human, especially a mammal with four legs.

13. the act or hobby of visiting and seeing interesting places; touring.