

Name: _____

The Little Seamstress - Test Prep

Across

- 2. Four-Eyes' glasses were knocked off by a _____.
- 6. When visiting the miller, the boys pretended to be officials from Beijing, which the miller referred to as _____.
- 10. Upon arrival to the village, the sonata that the narrator played for the villagers was by _____.
- 11. Four-Eyes' mother worked as a _____.
- 14. The translator of the Balzac novels was named _____.
- 19. The narrator met Four-Eyes' mother in the town of _____.
- 23. The preacher's last words were a _____ prayer.
- 24. The sorceress had a bow made of _____.
- 26. Leo was sent back to the city because his _____ had fallen ill.
- 27. The little Seamstress left in the month of _____.
- 28. The movie that the narrator tells the sorceresses was called "the little _____ seller"
- 31. Four-Eyes claimed to only be friends with Luo because he was worried about his parents' _____.
- 33. At first, the headman thought that the violin was a _____.
- 34. The village headman had 3 blood spots in his _____ eye.

- 35. The boys were being re-educated on the _____ of the sky.
 - 37. Four-Eyes wanted authentic folk songs with an "undertone of _____ realism".
 - 38. When Luo fell ill, it was because he had _____. (what disease?)
 - 39. The sorceress's bow was dipped in the _____ river.
 - 40. Luo's father worked as a _____.
- Down
- 1. The miller's snack that he served was jade _____ with salty sauce.
 - 3. The little seamstress wore her hair in a _____.
 - 4. The narrator wrote novel passages on a _____ jacket
 - 5. When Luo was ill, the villagers whipped him with peach and _____ branches
 - 7. After chasing Luo and the seamstress, the narrator roasted sweet _____.
 - 8. The boys lived in a house on _____.
 - 9. The colour of the ravens' beaks was _____.
 - 12. Western _____ was banned in China
 - 13. The name of the first boom that the boys read was _____.
 - 15. Luo was _____ years old
 - 16. When entrusted to protect the seamstress, the narrator pretended that he was an _____ agent.

- 17. The seamstress said that "a woman's _____ is a treasure beyond price."
- 18. The narrator's favourite novel was _____.
- 20. In the water, the seamstress was bitten by a _____.
- 21. The gender of the little seamstress' baby was a _____.
- 22. tax amount
- 25. The instrument that the narrator played was a _____
- 29. Buffalo blood is said to be a remedy against _____.
- 30. Four-Eyes had a _____ full of books.
- 32. The boys' parents are considered _____ of the state.
- 36. The boys fashioned a master key out of a _____.