

The Math Words I This Year

Across

2. The median value of a range of values.
5. A measure, quantity, or frequency, typically one measured against some other quantity or measure.
9. The amount of space that a substance or object occupies, or that is enclosed within a container, especially when great.
10. The Range is the difference between the lowest and highest values.
12. Facts and statistics collected together for reference or analysis.
14. The continuous line forming the boundary of a closed geometric figure.

15. (Of a quantity or function) related to another so that their product is one.

16. Make (something) simpler or easier to do or understand.

18. The quantitative relation between two amounts showing the number of times one value contains or is contained within the other.

Down

1. A numerical quantity that is not a whole number.

3. a whole number; a number that is not a fraction. 2. a thing complete in itself.

4. The condition of being equal or equivalent in value, worth, function, etc.

6. Having or involving several parts, elements, or members.

7. A number is a real number that is less than zero.

8. A circumstance, fact, or influence that contributes to a result or outcome.

11. The number which appears most often in a set of numbers.

13. A region or part of a town, a country, or the world.

17. A collection of numbers or values that relate to a particular subject.