

The Necklace and Civil Peace

Across

- 3. Jonathon soon realizes his job as a miner won't cut it, so he started to do what?
- 5. Mathilde's wealthy friend who has the lifestyle that Mathilde envies
- 6. Who is the author of "Civil Peace"?
- 8. How much money did he make from his taxi business in two weeks?
- 11. The piece of jewelry that Mathilde borrows to give her the look of wealthy
- 13. Who is the protagonist of "Civil Peace"?
- 14. Where did he move back to?

16. How much money do the robbers ask from Jonathon?

- 19. A statement that might seem absurd or contradictory but yet can be so true, or at least makes sense.
- 20. Mathilde's husband who is okay with a simple lifestyle, but he does his best to appease Mathilde's demands

Down

- 1. What is the moral of "The Necklace" by Guy de Maupassant?
- 2. She has been blessed with physical beauty, but not the affluent lifestyle she desires
- 4. Why didn't Mathilde just tell her friend about the lost necklace?

- 7. What happened before the story in Nigeria?
- 9. Was the necklace that Mathilde borrowed fake?
- 10. How long did the couple have to work for to get the money for the necklace they thought was real?
- 12. Famous city in England that "The Necklace" is set in
- 15. The government contacts Jonathon and tells him that he if he turns in rebel currency, he will get what in return?
- 17. Where is the setting of Civil Peace?
- 18. What does Jonathon turn his bike into?