

The Nursing Process

Across

3. This is the statement that reflects the results or what to achieve.
5. What step in the Nursing Process; Analyzes progression towards goals, Makes revisions when needed, and collects data related to outcomes?
7. What kind of nursing intervention is medical administration?
9. During the Nursing Process, the nurse identifies the client health care needs by assessing _____ data, which includes edema, sweating, and temperature.

10. What kind of nursing intervention is positioning, sensory changes, and bathing?

11. The nurse would take _____, during the implementation phase

12. What is the initial action a nurse would complete after admission?

Down

1. Patients needs must be _____ according to Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs.

2. Which aspect of the nursing process is BEST associated with EVALUATION?(spell word out) A. implementing B. goal C. problem D. etiology

4. This states how the nurse will go about trying to achieve the result(s) of the patients.

6. Deciding to _____, modify, or continue Mr. Johnsons treatment is a part of the EVALUATION step in the nursing process.

8. During the nursing process, the nurse identifies the client health care needs by assessing _____ data, which includes patient statements.