

The Other Hamlet

Across

1. Who built the Fulham Court in order to alleviate conditions such as those seen in Walham and Lodge Avenues and Heckfield Place?
2. Who did these local tradesmen and businessmen persuade?
7. This Huguenot poem was published in what?
8. In which year did the parish impound three animals?
10. Which year did the Fulham Court get built?
11. What was the name of the house prior to King Edward Mansions?
12. This Huguenot horticulturist eulogised the area in a poem in which year?
14. Which organisation acquired Fairlawn?
16. What was the profession of the poet's brother?
18. The Fulham Court was built on the site of an earlier mansion. What was its name?
24. What was the name of old manor house?
26. When was the triangular green raised?
29. The King Edward Mansions were used by the Vestry until which year?
30. If you approached the green from the north side of Fulham Road from the Wheatsheaf at Parsons Green Lane how many houses did you pass?
33. What was the reputation of Walham and Lodge Avenues along with Heckfield Place in the 1920s?

35. Which year did local tradesmen and businessmen successfully persuade the underground station to change its name?
 37. What did the modern office block replace?
 39. What was the name of the old manor house at the centre of the green called?
 40. When was the village pond filled in due to it having become a receptacle for rubbish and dead animals?
 41. Name a horticulturist Huguenot?
 43. What big house was a gardener associated to?
 44. What other historical building did the village used to have?
 45. What are Huguenots also known as?
- Down
3. What was the new name of the underground station?
 4. The office buildings were built on its site between the Broadway and what Place?
 5. What was the name of the building in the centre of the green?
 6. What got developed in place of the demolished houses?
 9. When was the building at the centre of the green built?
 13. Using a compass tell me which side of the Fulham Road was Fulham Court built on?
 15. What were the last two men punished for?
 17. Name the poet's more famous brother?
 19. What was the name of the gardener?

20. What was the old name of the village?
21. Who described it in the early eighteenth century?
22. What were the compass directions for reaching the green's stocks and whipping post?
23. The site were the pond was used to build what?
25. When did all these houses get demolished?
27. When was the whipping post last used?
28. A horse and boar was mentioned what was the third animal?
31. The buildings on Parsons Green had been divided from larger buildings originating in which century?
32. Who filled in the pond?
34. What was the name of the Lodge that was also associated with the same gardener?
36. Which profession were the houses mainly consisting of?
38. The animals were released to their owners on payment of what?
42. What was found opposite the parish in which stray animals were kept?