

The Path of Mentor and Disciple

Across

- 1. When we face a tough situation, that's the time we need to summon our.....
- 8. What is the aim of Soka Mentors and Disciples
- 9. Mr Toda was angered toward the devilish nature of authority that had killed his mentor. He felt that if people fail to be angered by evil that will perish
- 11. The desire to become strong and unshaken by any difficulty propels our human.....

12. Chanting only for one's own benefit and happiness without thought for others was viewed by Makiguchi as being

Down

- 2. President Makiguchi sought to help people to cultivate their own.....so they could use it to become happy
- 3. Mr Toda was honored to share.....with his mentor
- 4. Makiguchi's and Toda's heroic struggles against Japanese militarism revealed them as individuals of to towering.....
- 5. Josei Toda proudly indentified himself as Mr Makiguchi's.....

- 6. Mr Makiguchi felt that people are far more important than power, position, celebrity or academic credentials: He felt that what matters is learning the.....,creating value and working for the people's happiness and well-being.
- 7. The essence of the Soka Gakkai spirit is that the more difficult the challenge, the morewe must tackle it.
- 10. The mentor -disciple relationship is based on sharing the same.....as the mentor to relieve suffering of all people and continuously take action toward that end