

The Plot of a Story Vocab!

Across

3. Sequence of events in a story
6. the series of conflicts or struggles that build a story toward a climax.
9. the central idea of the story; what the author is trying to convey
12. Most exciting moment of the story; turning point

13. The beginning of the story where the characters and setting are introduced

Down

1. A character that changes throughout the story
2. A character who does not change during the story.
4. Attitude a writer takes toward the audience, a subject, or a character

5. the parts of a story after the climax and before the very end

7. Conversation between characters
8. End of the story where loose ends are tied up
10. How the reader feels about the text while reading.
11. where and when the story takes place