

The Ravine and from The Jumping Tree

Across

3. agreement.

8. a coiled or looped bundle of something, such as rope or yarn.

9. to move sideways.

12. something that can fall, pour, or rush in stages, like a waterfall over steep rocks.

13. a small brook or stream.

Word Bank

precipice

vendors

mammoth

cascade

rivulet

momentum

gnarly

contract

sidle

kindling

ravine

hank

haole

decomposing

14. starting to decay and fall apart.

Down

1. an overhanging or extremely steep area of rock.

2. something that has many knots and bumpy areas on its surface.

4. people who sell things.

5. bits of dry wood used to start a fire.

6. a deep, narrow valley made by running water.

7. gigantic, enormous.

10. the characteristic of a moving body that is caused by its mass and its motion.

11. in Hawaii, a white person or non-native Hawaiian.