

The Roaring 20's

Across

- 5. A style of dance music popular in the 1920s
- 9. The greatest baseball player of the 1920's. He set a record for hitting 60 home runs in one season.
- 10. Young women in the 1920s who challenged social traditions with their dress and behavior
- 12. Forms of communication, such as magazines, movies and radio, that reach millions of people.

Down

- 1. Smugglers of illegal alcohol during the Prohibition era
- 2. A group of American writers who were disillusioned with American society during the 1920s. Included Ernest Hemmingway and F. Scott Fitzgerald.
- 3. A literary and artistic movement celebrating African American culture
- 4. President of the United States in the 1920s. Campaigned by promising a "Return to Normalcy".

- 6. A pair of bank-robbers who became famous during the 1920s.
- 7. Repeals Prohibition. The only amendment that specifically repeals another amendment.
- 8. Prohibits the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors in America.
- 11. A period of general fear of communists after World War I.