

The Roaring Twenties

Across

2. American writer who coined the phrase, "The Jazz Age." Wrote The Great Gatsby

3. Writer and playwright whose novel, Babbitt, ridiculed Americans for their conformity and materialism; First American to receive Nobel prize in literature

9. An American artist. Her paintings were highly symbolic.

12. John Scopes's attorney and one of the founders of the ACLU

15. A place where alcoholic drinks were sold and consumed illegally during Prohibition.

16. African-American art and literature flourished during this time and it centered in the Harlem community of NYC

17. Banning of the manufacture, sale, and possession of alcoholic beverages.

18. Female lyrical poet & playwright who received the Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1923.

Down

1. Encouraged African Americans to build a separate society & eventually return to Africa to establish a country of their own.

4. Smuggled alcoholic beverages into US during Prohibition.

5. A set of principles granting greater sexual freedom to men than to women.

6. An American composer who incorporated jazz into classical forms and composed for musical comedies.

7. Trumpet player - perhaps the most influential jazz musician of all time.

8. "Empress of the Blues"

10. Won Nobel prize for literature in 1954, wrote A Farewell to Arms, The Old Man and the Sea

11. African-American poet who used jazz & blues themes & rhythms in poetry. He was from MO.

13. "Royal" Jazz composer and piano player.

14. A sensational 1925 court case in which biology teacher, John Scopes, was tried for challenging a TN law outlawing teaching evolution.