

The Scientific Revolution

Across

2. Who invented the scientific method
4. The part of science that deals with studying the stars and the planets
6. A guess of what you think will happen before doing a scientific experiment
8. The church that had the most power during the revolution
9. New ideas not proven to be right or wrong
10. The art of inventing something new

Down

1. Who was a Italian astronomer and physicist and invented the microscope
3. Who believed that the planets rotate on their axis and orbit the sun
5. A English mathematician and astronomer who played a big role in the scientific revolution and he is one of the most influential people of his time and ever
7. What revolution made large advances in science