

The Sniper by Liam O'Flaherty

Across

- 3. Regret
- 6. A city in Ireland.
- 9. A trick.
- 14. An explosive noise; bang.
- 15. Then he sank to the roof, dragging his _____ with him.
- 16. Covered, wrapped.
- 18. Sudden attack.
- 20. Severe, stern
- 21. To speak rapidly and incoherently.
- 23. At irregular intervals.
- 25. Surrounded

26. In Northern Ireland, Catholics and _____ have feared and resented each other for generations.

Down

- 1. Contrast between what is expected and what actually happens, _____ irony.
- 2. The excitement or tension that readers feel as they get involved in a story and become eager to know the outcome.
- 4. To fall of balance.
- 5. The quality of being a unique person.
- 7. Where the woman's corpse lay.

- 8. Liam O'Flaherty lived here when he was a child.
- 10. A person who supports a cause or pursues an interest with extreme enthusiasm.
- 11. To become embedded or stuck.
- 12. Turned away in disgust.
- 13. The bullet had lodged in the _____.
- 17. A speech delivered at someone's funeral.
- 19. Bitter regret.
- 22. A low wall along the edge of a roof or balcony.
- 24. IRA, _____ Republican Army