

The Sociological World

Across

1. Taking into account the differences across cultures without passing judgement or assigning value
5. The author of "Das Kapital"
8. A sense of aimlessness or despair that arises when we can no longer reasonably expect life to be predictable
9. Inventor of Positivism, also known as social physics
10. Moral Beliefs

11. an intensive investigation of one particular unit of analysis in order to describe it or uncover its mechanisms

14. A theory that attempts to predict how certain social institutions tend to function

15. The steady acquisition of material possessions, often with the belief that happiness and fulfillment can thus be achieved

Down

2. The process by which individuals internalize the values, beliefs, and norms of a given society and learn to function as members of that society

3. Author of "Suicide"

4. Author of "The Social System"

6. The Working class is also known as

7. a recognizable social position that an individual occupies

12. An ordered series of questions intended to elicit information from respondents

13. How values tell us how to behave