

The Souls of Black Folk, Chapter One

Across

1. The author wishes to make it possible for a man to be both a Negro and American, but worries that the metaphorical door of _____ will close?
4. What historical event gave Negroes half freedom?
6. What did the fifteen amendment embody?
11. What separates the two worlds?
13. The author refer to the negro as _____?
15. What is the key to a promised land of sweeter beauty?
18. What is he longing to attain, to merge his double self

19. Despite being emancipated, and having the right to vote, they still question the meaning of _____.

20. The powers of body and mind of a single black man are like _____?

Down

2. Having the feeling of living in a double world, the author feels like he has a _____.
3. What kind of environment did he feel like the black boys were living in?
5. What does the author suggest to attain work, culture, and liberty in the Negro community?
7. Following emancipation, what right did Negroes obtain?
8. How does the author describe the perception that Negroes view themselves in American society?

9. What is the second ideal that emerged from the curiosity to know, and test the power of cabalistic letters of the white man?

10. According to the author, the feeling of delicacy, and the difficulty of right framing are _____ question.

12. What has not yet found peace from its sins?

14. What was the sum of all villainies, the cause of all sorrow, the root of all prejudice?

16. Who is the seventh son born with a veil according to the author?

17. Who played a role in keeping the Negroes hopeful and resilient?