

The Theory of Grit

Across

1. We should celebrate with our students whenever they _____.
3. Who is the theorist behind the theory of grit?
6. What kind of expectations should we have for our students that helps produce grit?
10. We have to be willing to _____.
13. Effort counts _____.
15. Introducing grit to our students will have a _____ impact on them.
17. Teachers need to provide a ritual and an _____ for students to learn from and correct mistakes.

18. Teachers can instill grit in their students by relationship _____.

19. We need to give students time to do this with their work.

20. Duckworth is a professor at the University of _____.

Down

2. It is important to set these to build grit.
4. This is the determining factor for success.
5. One key component to teaching any skill is _____.

7. This assessment primarily represents achievement when teaching grit.

8. Grit is teaching students how to deal with imperfections and _____.

9. Grit gives students time to practice self-_____.

11. Teachers need to be _____ in order for their students to learn grit.

12. Strength of character _____.

14. We should not grade these types of assessments when teaching grit.

16. If we want students to value grit, they need to view learning as a _____.

Word Bank

failure

high goals

Long-term

Journey

building

fail

assessment

succeed

Angela Duckworth

Perseverance

Grit

Pennsylvania

opportunity

Modeling

Formative

Summative

twice

Revise

gritty