

The Thinking Life - Chapter 4

Across

1. Mixture of thinking and feeling.
4. Helps you to understand mistakes and why they occurred.
6. Reason to revisit past experiences.
9. Who said it is better to be wise than smart?
12. Moral imagination.
13. What is added to your verbal contributions when you reflect on what you hear in a conversation.
15. What does learning from the mistakes of others require?
17. The prelude to good decisions.

19. Current concerns improve this mechanism when you understanding past experiences better.

20. A man that learns from his own mistakes.

21. Reason for reflection at work.

Down

2. We often shift _____ for failures when reflecting on past failures.

3. A man that learns from other's mistakes.

5. Smart thing we do for others when we pay attention to them.

7. A good listener is the _____ of a real people person.

8. The most gratifying form of validation.

10. You can face life situations with the best chance of success when reflection becomes _____.

11. Benefit when a conversational exchange takes place.

14. Required to focus on another person's behavior.

16. Reward for willingness to ask yourself tough questions.

18. Don't dwell on _____ unless you can learn from it.