

Name: _____ Date: _____

The Truth About Marijuana

1. An inflammation (irritation, swelling, painful condition) of the two branches of the windpipe that carry air into the lungs. A. High
2. A drug which when used may lead to the use of more addictive substances. B. Potency
3. Having a temporary false feeling of happiness, with reduced physical and mental control, by use of alcohol or a drug. C. Tolerance
4. Consists of all the organs and processes in the body that protect a person from illness and infection. D. Immune System
5. Added a small amount of a drug or alcohol to something. E. Gateway Drug
6. A sudden overpowering feeling of fear or anxiety that prevents somebody from functioning, often triggered by a past or present source of anxiety. F. Laced
7. The strength of something such as a drug or alcoholic beverage. G. Bronchitis
8. A semisolid substance that comes from the sap of some plants and trees. It is used in varnishes, paints, adhesives, inks and medicines. H. Resin
9. The passage formed by the mouth, nose, throat and lungs, through which air passes during breathing. I. Panic Attack
10. The natural or developed ability to resist the effects of the continued or increasing use of a drug. When someone uses a drug or other substance over an extended period, causing a gradual loss or reduction of its usual effect. J. Respiratory Tract