

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Witch of Blackbird Pond: Ch1-6

- | | |
|---|-----------------|
| 1. intimidated | A. placid |
| 2. marked by precise exact attention to details | B. fumed |
| 3. yield or concede with displeasure | C. affront |
| 4. in a state of excited irritation or anger | D. cadence |
| 5. touch or lightly pat | E. repress |
| 6. lacking in distinguishing marks or character | F. demurely |
| 7. distress brought on by humiliation, hurt pride, disappointment, or consciousness of failure or error | G. cowed |
| 8. affected with fear or timidity: wavering | H. constrained |
| 9. making a pretentious show of excellence, elegance, beauty, or worth | I. placating |
| 10. visibly | J. daub |
| 11. disrespectful insult | K. gaudy |
| 12. soothing: appeasing | L. perceptibly |
| 13. fortunately | M. nondescript |
| 14. control, keep down | N. indulgently |
| 15. moved in waves | O. terse |
| 16. poisonous | P. grudgingly |
| 17. modestly, primly | Q. appraisal |
| 18. in a permissive manner | R. begrudge |
| 19. unwillingly: reluctantly | S. incredulous |
| 20. rhythm | T. auspiciously |
| 21. concise | U. marred |
| 22. act of estimating the value or worth of something | V. undulated |
| 23. unbelieving | W. venomous |
| 24. restrained from free and easy expression | X. punctilious |

25. detracted from the good condition or beauty of

Y. tremulous

26. quiet, tranquil

Z. chagrined