

The Words of English

Across

- 5. A group of lines usually similar in length and patyer, that form a unot in a poem
- 6. Point of view
- 9. A writers or speakers attitude toward a subject
- 10. A metrical foot that consists of an unstressed syllable followed by a stressed syllable
- 11. A question asked to emphasize a point or create an effect; no answer is expected

Down

- 1. The writer trying to persuade you to agree with something
- 2. A public debate or dispute concerning a matter of opinion
- 3. To be trusted or believed
- 4. An extreme exaggeration
- 7. Vivid language used to appeal to the five senses, often creating mood
- 8. A light, humorous, nonsensical verse of a few lines