

The digestive system

Across

5. these type of teeth grind the food

7. saliva contains the enzyme

8. this organ produces bile which helps to break down fat

9. the type of digestion which involves enzymes is known as

11. The food is being out to use by the cells during this process

12. this organ carries food down to the stomach

13. the process of breaking down food is called

Down

1. food is digested into the blood here

2. water is absorbed into the blood here

3. this is another enzyme which rhymes with amylase and breaks down maltose

4. This process is when food is passing into the blood system

6. the type of digestion which involves chewing and churning in the stomach is called

10. these type of teeth cut and slice the food