

The study of life

Across

2. Needs to be able to be repeated
 5. Science used to expand knowledge
 9. Being able to grow and develop their body
 10. Study of living organisms and their relationships with nature
 11. Science used to solve problems

13. Series of well defined steps (2 words)

14. ____ have mechanisms used to control their internal function

Down

1. An observable result that must be correct if the hypothesis is valid

3. Factors tested in one experiment are dependent and independent

4. Has nucleus

6. A testable statement that explains something observed

7. ____ have mechanisms to coordinate their internal functions

8. A result of adaption

12. All living things are highly organized starting from the simplest level