

Theater Terms

Across

2. a speech often in verse addressed to the audience by an actor at the end of a play

5. The area that is occupied by the orchestra

6. an extended speech by one person

8. a group of actors who described and commented upon the main action of a play with song, dance, and recitation

9. a spot where each actor should stand or sit or move

11. When the audience understands whats going on in the situation but the characters dont

12. The place where an action or event occurs

Down

1. when a character speaks to himself or herself about feelings or recent events with the allusion that the audience is a mirror

3. speech addressed to the audience by one or more of the actors at the opening of a play.

4. Mechanical devices used to control the intensity of light in the stage

7. Certain/important parts of a play

10. happens when a character's dialogue is spoken but not heard by the other actors on the stage