

Theatre I Vocabulary

Across

- 6. A long speech by a single actor
7. A role that an actor portrays in a play
8. A printed copy of the play
11. A trial run for a particular part in a play
12. A conversation among actors
13. The process of determining the actors placement on stage
14. Features a brief situation of action and dialogue

15. The way in which you pronounce words or produce sounds

17. The process of selecting actors for various roles

Down

- 1. The art of acting without words
2. When an actor auditions for role without having read the script
3. The strength of speaking whereby the voice is used clearly and loudly

4. The portrayal of a character or scene without rehearsal

5. One who contends or opposes the principal

9. The principal character in a literary work; sometimes the hero

10. The arrangement of events or the selection and order of scenes within a play

16. The main tool separating a whole performance with intervals